Project Period	September 2002 – September 2007
Highlights	Northeast Community Federal Credit Union (NCFCU) is expanding its existing AFI Project and offering 12 IDAs for homeownership, microenterprise, and post-secondary education. The match rate is $2 to $1, up to $2,000 in participant savings over 36 months. Beyond core training, participants can access counseling. The CASE Collaborative, the existing AFI Project, has a design to overcome cultural and language barriers faced by participants and is being used as the basis for this project.
Target Population	Asian and Pacific Islander women and families in the Tenderloin district of San Francisco, California.
Grantee/Collaborative Description	NCFCU is a community development federal credit union founded in 1981. They currently provide loans that can tie into IDA participant needs. These include emergency loans as well as “fresh start” start-up loans. The financial institution partner is Washington Mutual.
